Our governance

The governance of the Podáali Fund is composed of indigenous representatives and is organized through the following structure:

Responsible for supervising the accounts of the institution, composed of 3 members

Responsible for monitoring, defining and approving the actions and accountability of the Podáali, composed of 11 members

The highest body, responsible for strategic decisions

Currently consisting of 4 women directors, responsible for the management and operational execution of the fund.

Responsible for contributing to the construction of strategic guidelines, composed of 19 members

Our lines of action

Podáali is aligned with the guidelines of the Coordination of Indigenous Organizations of the Brazilian Amazon (COIAB), the National Policy for Territorial and Environmental Management of Indigenous Lands (PNGATI) and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). We are based on the defense of rights and the promotion of the well-living of indigenous peoples through the following lines of action:

- | | | | |
|--|---|---|--|
| 01 Indigenous territorial and environmental management and protection | 02 Sustainable economy and food sovereignty | 03 Institutional strengthening and promotion of rights | 04 Professional formation |
| 05 Ancestral medicine and indigenous health | 06 Cultural strengthening and indigenous traditional knowledge | 07 Gender, generations and indigenous people with disabilities | 08 Guaranteeing the rights of isolated indigenous peoples |
